Summary

Changes are to Clarifying Information and Worker Responsibilities in the following sections. WAC were not revised.

Section B. – Clients Who Must Participate

Clarifies the language and:

- Adds changes to the counties where FS E&T Services are provided for ABAWDs only.
- Removes language about several JAS component codes since some will be eliminated.
- Removed ACES procedures and referenced the ACES User Manual.

Section C. – Clients Who Are Not Required to Participate

Clarifies the language and:

- Adds information that methadone treatment is considered to be participating in drug treatment.
- Revises the exempt counties and areas; and
- Adds information that medical exemption verification can be completed by medical personnel who is given the responsibility – it no longer has to be a doctor.

Section E. - ABAWDs

Clarifies the language and:

- Adds the priority for exemptions;
- Revises the exempt areas and non-exempt areas;
- Revises the Reconciliation chart; and
- Removes the ACES procedures and gives a reference how to find these procedures in the ACES User Manual.

Appendix I FS E&T/ABAWD
Participation Requirement by Location

Appendix II – ZIP Codes for Exempt Cities

Adds changes to reflect the current exempt and non-exempt areas for Food Stamp Employment & Training work requirements.

A new chart that identifies:

- Zip codes for cities that are exempt due to federal waivers; and
- Zip codes areas where we are using the 15 percent exemption from work requirements for the Food Stamp Program.
